All race numbers to be collected on the day.

Please ensure you arrive in plenty of time to collect your race number from registration at the Welfare Club on the morning of the race, registration opens at 9:00am.

The race starts at 10.00am prompt.

Please ensure that you do not park illegally or inconsiderately – there will be car parking attendants that will guide you to safe parking zones. Please do not park on Ley Road or block the main roads.

Any illegally parked cars may be subject to Police cautions.

Prizes will be given after the results have been published approx. 11.30 am in the Welfare Club.

“Come and join us after the race for a drink in the Welfare Club to see the presentation.”

The course is generally fast but there is a testing climb at the end of each lap.

The trails are normally good so race trainers should be OK but in the event of heavy rain you may want to consider other more suitable footwear.

There will be parking and changing facilities available before and after the race.
